Dysfunctional Letterforms is a set of 12 fonts that could be used by an OT when preparing reports on the computer to show how a child is forming letters incorrectly (reversals, upside down letters, ...). No longer does the OT have to print a copy of the description, handwrite the problem letters, scan it back in, etc.

All the font names below start with “Dysfunctional.”

Backslant
Float high
Float low
Reversed
Reversed
Scattered
Too big tooclose
Too slant ed
Too small
Too wide
Upside down